BookBaby, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 277 x 213 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. How on Earth can you write a book answering the Question What is a Hospitality Manager and what do they do? When Hospitality businesses can be so vastly different. How on Earth can you write a book answering that Question; when everybody has a different opinion as to what is Management and who is a Manager? Well here we go. I truly believe that Management is the Art of Getting Things Done through People. It may be Scientific at times, it may be Luck at times but I believe it is an Art. Using this Idea then, I will be writing about those within Hospitality whose roles are to Get Things Done through People on a regular Basis. I can see for the point of this work 4 different types of Managers who get things done through people. Of course there are many more; but I am the author and I had to make the choice. Firstly I will be writing about Supervisors. A Supervisor could be a very different person within different types of Businesses; but for the basis of this work a Supervisor is anybody who is a first-level manager. Normally working within 1 area of the business and normally not in charge of an area except for perhaps a shift at a time when their Senior is not present. Secondly I will be writing about a Head of Department level within a business. Typically they will have Supervisors working with them and they will be seen as more senior than their Supervisors. Normally they will be the most senior Manager within a particular area and will have different responsibilities depending on the size of the business and the way...
