It is enriched with many half-page or full-page water-color paintings, which are almost certainly by the same hand, as we know from the Letters that Shenstone amused himself with such work (Works, III, pp. 150, 155). There are pictures of groves, winding streams and walks, cascades, lakes, summer-houses, the vistas of the blue hills and of the church spire that he liked so well to look upon, and one that probably shows the ruined priory. Besides, there are flowers, emblematic pieces such as he often mentions in his letters, the pheasant, the king-fisher or halcyon, which he chose and designed for his coat of arms...
