

From Generation to Generation: The Adaptive Challenge of Mainline Protestant Education in Forming Faith

By Charles R. Foster

Wipf Stock Publishers, United Kingdom, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 239 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Synopsis: Mainline Protestant congregations face a profound adaptive challenge. In the midst of significant social, cultural, and technological change, the denominations they represent generally abandoned a view of education capable of maintaining and renewing their faith traditions through their children and youth. New curriculum resources and innovative pedagogical strategies appropriated from the marketplace of religious education options have not met the challenge. A transformation of consciousness is required in congregations seeking a future through their children. It involves the exercise of an ecclesial imagination to reclaim a view of education rooted in the revitalization of their religious traditions in the past and re-envisioning the congregation as a catechetical culture of faith formation. Endorsements: From Generation to Generation begins in lament for all that has been lost in education and spiritual formation . . . and ends by reimagining those tasks and laying out the practices that will form the faith of the next generation. . . . From Generation to Generation makes an important, creative, and practical contribution to that conversation. --Michael E. Williams, Senior Pastor,...
