AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2006. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 221 x 145 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.In Search Of Ruritania By David Slattery-Christy Synopsis This is not a sentimental journey. In Search of Ruritania is an honest and affectionate journey into the life, work and world of the late Ivor Novello. From his first success as a composer with the First World War hit Keep The Home Fires Burning, he went on to become a film star, successful playwright and the creator of glamorous ruritanian musicals which filled the Theatre Royal, Drury Lane. Ruritania was the mythical land in which he set these romantic musicals, it was a land of his own invention and also one which reflected the historical and social events in the real world around him. Within the book his association with the likes of Sir Edward Marsh, who offered him support using his murder money, and introduced him to Winston Churchill, are explored. Both went on to enjoy a life-long friendship with Novello. Interwoven through the story are accounts of my experiences whilst involved with Novello s works. From the tribute concerts at the Theatre Royal, Drury Lane, to the role I undertook on the award winning film Gosford Park as the Novello Consultant . Along the way I have met and interviewed the likes of Mary Ellis, who starred in Glamorous Night in 1935; Douglas Fairbanks Jnr, who often stayed at Novello s country home with his wife Joan Crawford; Gordon Duttson, Novello s last secretary and lover; Nicholas Hassall, whose father, Christopher Hassall, was Novello s lyricist and close friend. It could stand alone as a story in its own right and doesn t shy away from exploring Novello s homosexuality and his hedonistic, and often bizarre, lifestyle...
