Elijah Ward: On the First Duty of the Government and People; Comprehensive Review of Our Recent Financial History; Errors of the Administration; Striking Contrast in France; The Law of Financial Panics; Necessity of a Fixed Standard of Value; When and How to Resume; B In the present state of the nation, it is of the highest importance that correct views and principles should be placed before the people, thus contributing to the progress of sound opinion. A candid exposition of the perils surrounding us is much more conducive to the public interests than specious and delusive promises can be. The people are disposed to look to the Democratic party for a return to economy and integrity in the administration of public affairs, and for the introduction and adoption of measures well calculated to restore to a safe and harmonious basis the financial, commercial, and material interests of the nation. It yet remains to be seen whether the future leaders will fully recognize the exigencies of the occasion and perceive that...
