Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 228 x 154 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Annalisa Bahadur s debut volume of poetry, A Flower s Envy, illuminates a gorgeous new voice on the landscape of international poetry. Bahadur s poems capture the full gamut of women s experiences as lovers, mothers, daughters, friends, and workers. With short, elegant stanzas and a lack of superfluous wordiness, Bahadur s simple and beautiful verses will speak to the heart of any poetry lover. Bahadur s unique experiences growing up as a young woman in Guyana, a multicultural South American nation, as well as her years spent in India give A Flower s Envy a decidedly global perspective. Bahadur s tender tributes to her children and her vulnerable yet insightful observations of heartbreak and loss are particularly noteworthy for the sense of hope implicit in their sentiments. In A Flower s Envy, poetry aficionados will discover an easy-to-read, thought-provoking, and lyrical look at the lives of women, and in truth, the beauty and hope inherent in the universal human condition.
