Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Taylor School Readers Second Reader General Aim. - In this book, as in the First Reader of the series, the chief purpose is to furnish pure, elevating literature, embodying the interests of child life. Books and Authors. - The delightful poems of child life by Eugene Field and Robert Louis Stevenson, together with one of Hans Andersen's matchless stories, open the way to the child's world of literature. Anecdotes of especial interest to children of the second reader grade have been selected from the lives of these favorite authors of childhood. Patriotic Features. - Stories of Pilgrim children introduce the child of to-day to the early history of our country. Lessons from the boyhood of our two greatest men serve to increase the interest already awakened by the historical stories of the First Reader. Nature Study and Special Days. - This book contains a variety of subjects from which the teacher may select for particular needs as they arise from time to time. In it there are many choice selections from literature...
