This publication will be worth purchasing. It really is written in simple terms instead of difficult to understand. It's been designed in an exceptionally simple way and is particularly only right after I finished reading this ebook in which basically modified me, altered the way I believe.

Arcadia Publishing, 2007. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: Title: Chicago Author David G. Clark Wins Communications Awards Author: David G. Clark Publisher: Windy City Road Warrior Date: 5/23/09 On May 16, 2009, the Illinois Women's Press Association (IWPA) held their annual Spring Awards Luncheon to honor the winners of the Mate E. Palmer Communications Contest. Chicago author David G. Clark, also known as the Windy City Road Warrior, was honored to win First Place in two categories for his published articles that use historic highway Route 66 through the Chicago area as their unifying theme. In the Special Series category, Clark won the first place award for three of his articles that appeared in the Federation News, the quarterly publication of the National Historic Route 66 Federation. The series, titled "Architects of Chicago's Route 66," discussed the careers and buildings of architects Louis Sullivan and Frank Lloyd Wright. The contest judges commented that the series exhibited "reporting that bridges the gap between history and the current community" and contained "meticulous research." The articles were published in the Spring, Summer, and Autumn 2008 editions of the Federation News. In the Special History Articles category, Clark won first place for "Filling the Skies with Commerce" parts 1 and 2, published in the Spring and Summer 2008 editions of Route 66 Magazine. These articles recounted some events of aviation history that occurred along the Route 66 corridor in the Chicago area. The contest judges wrote in comment, "Documenting the early aviators of Chicago and the city's fascinating history with flying was a great subject. Clark's river (ocean?) of facts is almost overwhelming. Reading Clark is like taking a drink from a fire hose." In all, 36 members of the IWPA won 110 1st, 2nd,...
