Include screenshot of the Thanks page in your email; I will send the full-color hi-res PDF right away. . . . Back in 1990, I was a wedding photographer. I noticed that the brides-to-be who interviewed me had more worries than hopes for their weddings and receptions. They worried about the caterer, the floral designer, the videographer, the photographer, the officiant -- and they didn't know how to be sure they could select the right people for their big day. In short, they didn't know what to look for or how to ask people the right questions. So, after years of shooting weddings and watching the good, bad and ugly services being performed, I knew what they should ask about, how they should interview, and how they could tell whether a...
