Marilyn Monroe is dead from an apparent overdose. The Kennedy Administration accuses Russia of installing missiles in Cuba. In a suburb south of Chicago, a ghost-like female figure is chased by a car on a hot, rain-soaked night. Private detective Jack Lamont sees the intended victim narrowly escape death while he is driving back to Guido s Bar Grill. He rescues the woman and takes her to his room above Guido s joint. The woman doesn t know her name, where she lives, or what happened to her. She has no money except for a stash of wet, bloodstained bills hidden in her dress. Lamont s search for clues to her identity and the person who tried to kill her leads him on a trail of blackmail and murder in one of his most challenging cases since leaving the Forest Heights Police Department. Lola is author Charles Loebbaka s third Jack Lamont mystery. He also is the author of two novels that take place in France during World War II- Love and Death in...
